Stewardship Reflections

“Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.” (1 Corinthians 10:17)

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God’s kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other’s relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our road map to Heaven. Let’s help each other get there!

Up next: Prayer for those who keep the peace

By David Jones

After twelve weeks of estrangement, our three parishes have reopened, though with restrictions. Not everyone is happy with the social distancing rules and not all have returned. It will take a few more weeks – and the end of restrictions – for us to feel normal again.

Meanwhile the evil one changes tactics, attacking our nation (and the Church) with riots disguised as protests, and senseless, dangerous calls to disband or defund police departments.

What are we to think? To do?

Perhaps God is giving us the opportunity to witness the difference between the “way of the world” and “the way of Christ.” We are meant to choose how we will respond: With love or with hate? With reason or with irrationality?

Let’s pray that our area of the nation will escape the worst of the madness. But we also must pray for those who cannot avoid the mayhem and insurrection, that their words and actions be tempered with God’s love. That rioters can be transformed through God’s Spirit. That our peacekeepers are given the courage to stay on the job, and Divine Protection when they do.
